Foreward . . .

We go to meet life confidently, grateful for the opportunities that we have had and for our memories of Martin College. May this MARTINAIRE serve to keep those memories bright as we, endowed with the ideals and inspiration we have received here, take our places in the world.

MR. ANTHONY J. TAFFS

To one who is prominent in our memories of these last two years, we respectfully dedicate this MARTINAIRE. The inspiration of his music has enriched our lives. We shall always remember his gracious English manner and his deeply sympathetic understanding of our interests and problems. We are proud of a man who has given so earnestly and unselfishly of himself to the improvement of our school. We hold in highest esteem the great mind and the great soul that we have been privileged to know.

Dedication . . .

CAMPUS VIEW

EDGAR HOWARD ELAM

President

B.S.A., University of Tennessee; Graduate Study,
University of Chicago; George Peabody College.

To Students, Faculty, and Friends of Martin College:

The year 1947-1948 has been significant in the life of Martin College.

Following the turbulent war years and the many adjustments that were necessary with a rapidly growing student body, we have come nearer to the middle of the road. The student body is almost equally divided between men and women. College activities have hit a good stride. Academic work has ranked high with both students and alumni.

The ability, consecration, sympathy, and leadership of the faculty have continued to be strong, while the loyalty, hard work, and vision of the students have helped them to approach their goals.

Many friends and benefactors have come to the aid of the College to further the cause of Christian higher education. As this is being written more than one hundred charges of the Tennessee Conference have either paid or pledged their goals in the $200,000 campaign which we expect to be completed soon. Many scholarships and other contributions have been received.

Martin faces the future with a brighter look. With grateful spirits we may rejoice together. You have helped to make it possible. We extend continued best wishes to you.

Sincerely,

E. H. ELAM

C A M P U S

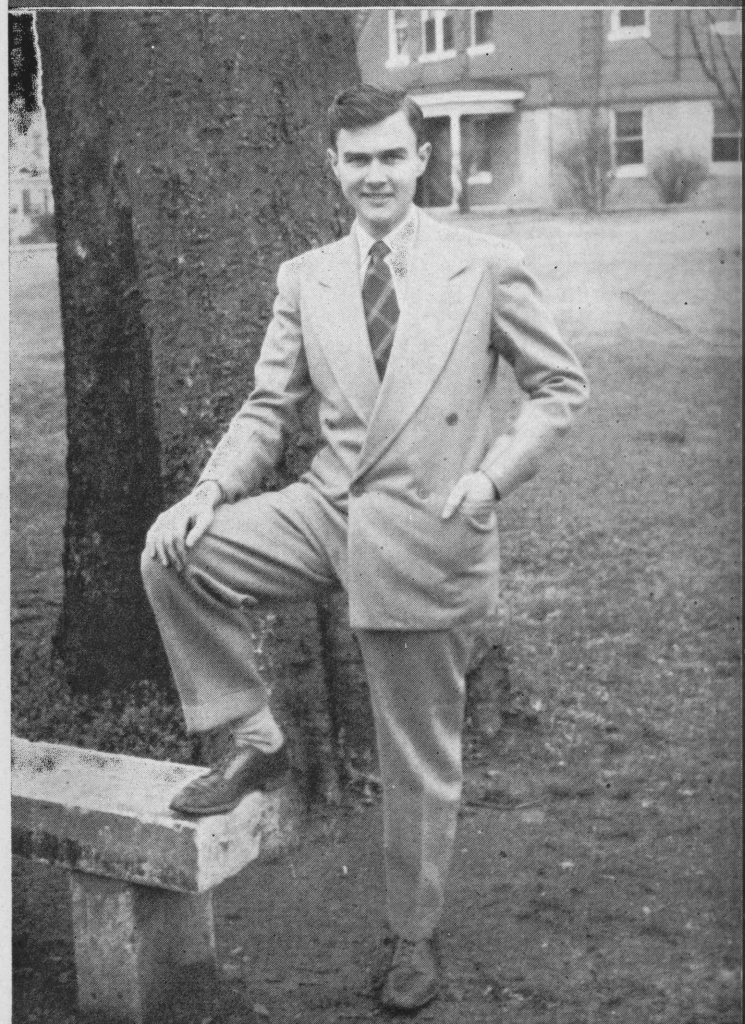

MARY CHAFFIN

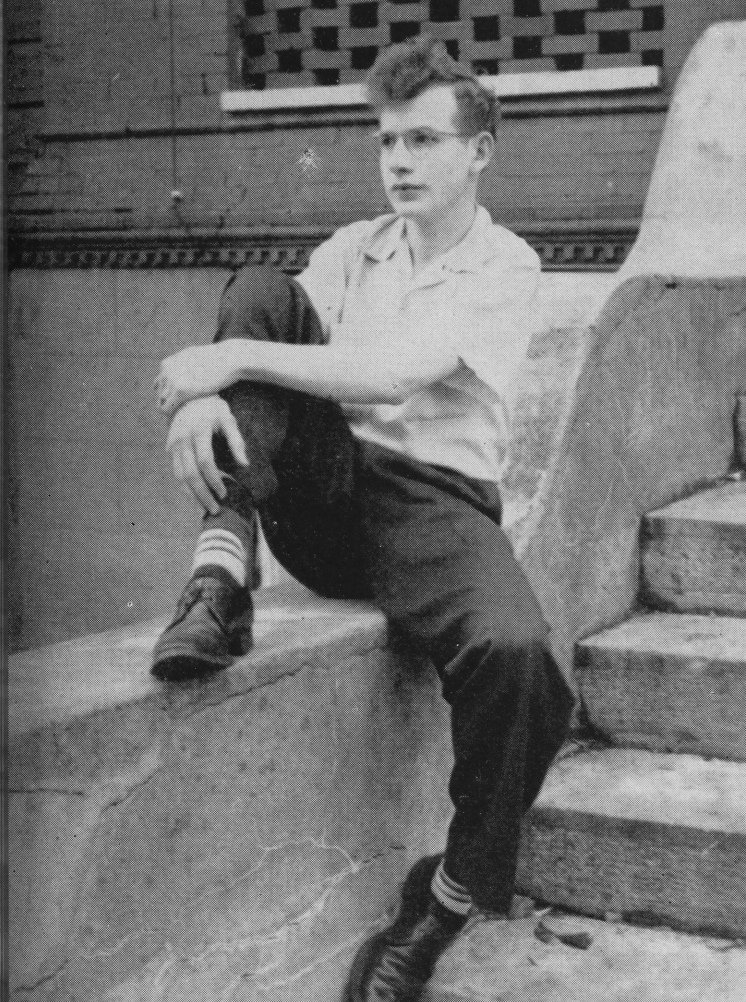

The purity and devotion of her Christian character make Mary a religious leader on our campus. She is beloved by all for her sweetness, kindness, friendliness, and thoughtfulness. Always quiet and sincere, she does everything in a Christlike manner. With her goodness and willingness to cooperate she sets a shining example for all of us, and we think she's the "best girl in school."

J. P. COLVIN

A friendly smile and happy disposition make J. P. an outstanding personality at Martin. In Christian character and in leadership ability he ranks high. He is a popular person, and as he leaves the campus with a cherry "See you tomorrow," we say, "There goes a good all-around guy."

PERSONALITIES

HENRY BLACK

In the midst of a lively conversation we find "Hank" displaying his intelligence, wit, and versatility. He has a high scholastic standing but finds time for cooperation in school activities. His friendly but independent attitude indicates his individual personality. He is a good leader and serves capably as the courteous and dependable president of the student body.

MARY ANN PERRY

With deep sincerity and earnestness in her soft, appealing voice, Mary Ann has spoken to us as President of the Student Christian Association. Her warm smiles make the day seem right for us. We might say sincere, kind, devoted, scholarly, but still we would not tap the deep resources of Mary Ann's radiating personality.

C A M P U S

REBA CLAYTON

Dramatic! That's the quality that makes Reba such an outstanding personality. In school activities, on the MARTINAIRE staff, in Delta Psi Omega, and on the campus, her talents and original ideas make life interesting for those around her. Wit, friendliness, and a sense of humor make her a popular person.

ROBERT LANIUS

"Hi," says Bob, and we greet a grand personality with a good attitude toward his school work. Initiative and a friendly disposition make him an outstanding leader in the freshman class. Active and interested in various phases of school life, Bob is hailed everywhere as an all-around good sport.

PERSONALITIES

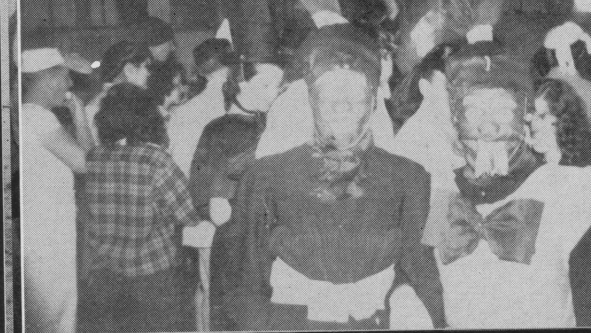

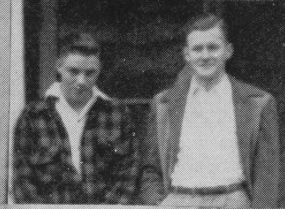

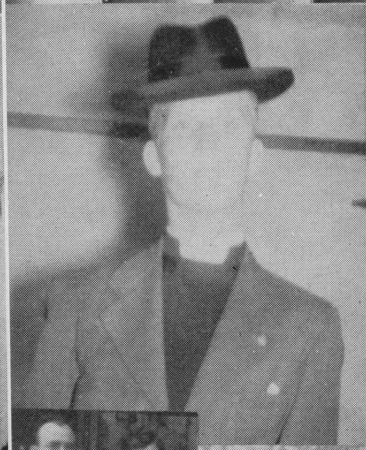

CLAYTON COVINGTON

Lots of laughs and lots of fun are in store when Clayton joins a group. Always welcome for his good nature, friendliness, and sportsmanship, Clayton is in demand everywhere. He is courteous, kind, and helpful to students and faculty. What could be better than a combination of laughter and ability to work hard? Because of these qualities, Clayton has good luck and success in store for him.

VIOLET SETTLE

Violet is always bubbling over with friendliness and good will. It makes us feel better just to have her around. Happy, cooperative, and active in many school projects, she has a well-rounded personality. Her varied interests and sincerity in everyday living make her a valuable part of the Martin family.

The Student Council and Student-Faculty Senate function as representatives of student and faculty organizations and seek to combine the interest of both in directing campus activities and solving mutual problems. A democratic atmosphere, essential to the American student, is the criterion for these governing bodies at Martin, and their efforts are focussed on Christian fellowship among all student and faculty groups.
